CREDIT CARD PROCEDURES

I do not accept the following or similar types of credit cards:

- Signature Visa
- Signature Preferred and/or Corporate Visa
- WorldCard MasterCard
- WorldCard World MasterCard
- Rewards MasterCard
- Business MasterCard
- Rewards Visa
- Business Visa
- Discover
- American Express
- Any other type of Rewards or Points card

The typical basic credit card, whether Visa or MasterCard, charges Dr. Eldredge approximately $5 to process a charge, after all of their percentages, numerous fees, taxes, etc., are added together. However, most of the above types of cards charge an additional $5 - $12 per transaction. For some of you, this means your entire copay goes to credit card companies.

"Merchants" are charged an amount to pay for the rewards or points your credit company "gives" you. Merchants are charged from two to five times more for those rewards or points than they actually give you, meaning the above fees go straight to the credit card company profits. Large businesses and companies may be able to absorb the costs outlined above, but as a self-employed sole proprietor, I cannot.

Your Options:

_____ I will use cash or checks for all future charges.

_____ I will use another type of credit card and provide that card information.

_____ I continue to use one of the above type cards and agree to pay an additional 5% per transaction.
